Arts Festival Poster Competition Winner Announced

The winner of the competition to find the poster image for the 2014 Arts Festival organised in conjunction with the Northumberland Gazette is Hipsburn artist, Katherine Renton. Katherine's painting, "Dune Walkway - Alnmouth", was chosen from a record number of entries and will be used on all the publicity material for next year's festival.

Note: applications are now being invited from exhibitors wishing to take part in 2014. For more information please go to: www.alnmouthartsfestival.com
The closing date is 15 November.

Yet Another Advert Filmed in Alnmouth

Viewers of ITV's main weather bulletin, sponsored by Seven Seas Cod Liver Oil, may have seen a lady on a trampoline claiming to be "damp in Dunstable" or another young lady in a wet suit, allegedly in Newquay. "Dunstable" is also known as Victoria Place and "Newquay" was actually filmed on Alnmouth beach!

Alnmouth welcomes

Dave and Kirsten who have recently opened Hooked Restaurant. They are pictured with son, Max and head waiter, Marcus.

We wish you every success in your new venture.

"Alnmouth's Secret Gardens - 2014"

Following the hugely successful and highly popular Secret Gardens day in 2012, Sian Hartshorn has kindly agreed to organise another one next May. If you think your garden might be suitable to be included, please contact Sian at Driftwood Lodge.
