

Volcano Night 2017

(pictures by Terry Collinson)

Queuing to register

Shovels for all sizes

We're ready!

Start Building!

Put your backs into it!

We have ignition

There's no smoke without fire

Would-be King Canutes hold back the sea

There were volcanos to the right

And volcanos to the left

Looking good so far!

And Newcastle won 3-0

Every little helps

Down to the last two
